

Ganey earned his Masters of Education at McNeese State University and is certified in Educational Leadership and Special Education. He is an educator in Calcasieu Parish where he has taught in a special education setting in every grade from Kindergarten to twelfth grade. He is also the parent of an extremely high functioning autistic child. In addition to being an educator, Ganey is a performing musical artist who has traveled the world as a professional musician and in 2012 was nominated and received the Individual Artist Career Advancement Grant awarded by the Louisiana Division of the Arts.